Subject: note for your site

Bob,
I owe you a huge apology...this note is LONG overdue. John Ramsey asked me to write a small blurb for your website & I'm so happy to do that. The benefit concert for him was amazing, one of the most fun things we've hosted so far. Thanks for making the evening what it was! We'd love to have you back again sometime down the road. Thanks again...and here's a note. Hope it's the kind of thing you're looking for:

Wow! Could not have had more fun watching Bob blow the crowd away tonight! Fantastic performance...he was perfect for our benefit concert. We would have him back in a second flat for any event! Thanks Bob!
